Series in Philosophy

STUDIES IN COMPARATIVE PHILOSOPHY AND RELIGION

A SERIES EDITED BY
DOUGLAS ALLEN, THE UNIVERSITY OF MAINE

ABOUT THE SERIES

This series is based on the view that significant and creative future studies in philosophy and religious studies will be informed by comparative research. These studies emphasize aspects of contemporary and classical Asian philosophy and religion, and their relationship to Western thought. This series features works of specialized scholarship by new and upcoming scholars in Asia and the West, as well as works by more established scholars and books with a wider readership. The editor welcomes a wide variety of manuscript submissions, especially works exhibiting highly focused research and theoretical innovation.

PROPOSAL GUIDELINES

To submit a manuscript for consideration by Lexington Books, please send the following:

- a prospectus (see below for details)
- one or two sample chapters
- your curriculum vitae

If you are proposing a contributed volume, please include titles, affiliations, and brief resumes for each of the contributors. And in lieu of sample chapters for an edited collection, we would prefer abstracts of each chapter.

The prospectus should include:

1. A description of the book, describing the core themes, arguments, issues, goals, and/or topics of the work, what makes it unique, what questions it seeks to answer, and why you are qualified to write it. (2-5 pages)
2. An annotated table of contents, with a descriptive paragraph for each chapter.
3. A description of your target audience (undergraduate or graduate students? scholars? professionals?).
4. An analysis of competing or similar books (including publishers and dates), describing distinctive and original elements of your project that set it apart from these other works.
5. A list of courses in which your book might be used as a text or supplementary text, if any, indicating the course level at which this book may be used.
6. An indication of whether any part of your manuscript has been published previously, and if it is a doctoral dissertation, what changes you are proposing to prepare it for publication.
7. The length of the manuscript either as a word count or a page count (12-point type, double-spaced 8 1/2" by 11" pages. Will there be figures, tables, or other non-text material, and, if so, approximately how many? If the text is not complete, please still estimate its final length, not including the non-text material.
8. If the manuscript is not complete, an estimation of when it will be finished. Is there a particular date by which you hope the book will be published (due to a historical anniversary, conference, etc.)?
9. The names of four to seven respected scholars in your field with whom you have no personal or professional relationship. Include their titles, affiliations, e-mail addresses, and/or mailing addresses.
10. An indication of whether the manuscript is under consideration by other publishers.

Please do not send your entire manuscript.

An acquisitions editor will contact you to request additional materials.
