

Call for Abstracts: ISCP at the 2025 APA Eastern Division Meeting
(January 8-11, 2025, in New York, NY)

The International Society for Chinese Philosophy (ISCP) is pleased to announce two group sessions at the Eastern Division meeting of the American Philosophical Association (APA) in New York, NY, from January 8-11, 2025.

We invite submissions on any area of Chinese philosophy, including comparative engagements with other traditions.

Submission Guidelines:

Please include the following information in your submission:

1. Title of Paper
2. Name of Presenter
3. Presenter's Affiliation
4. Presenter's E-mail Address
5. A 200-300 word Paper Abstract

Submission Deadline: June 30, 2024

Submission and Inquiries:

Please send your submissions and any inquiries to Dr. Jea Sophia Oh, ISCP Liaison to the APA Eastern Division Meeting, at joh@wcupa.edu with "ISCP APA Eastern" in the subject line.

Important Notes:

- Simultaneous submissions (e.g., submitting the same abstract to multiple APA Group Sessions) are discouraged. If your paper is selected, you are committed to presenting it at our Group Session at the APA Eastern Division Meeting.
- All Group Session participants (including speakers, commentators, and session chairs) must register for the APA conference.

We look forward to your participation and contributions to our sessions.
